ST. LUKE LUTHERAN CHURCH
New Bridgeville
York County, Pennsylvania

St. Luke, founded 1772, four years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, has provided two centuries of Christian service to the community. The original building was constructed of logs and the present structure was erected in 1899, with a Sunday School addition in 1947.

© 1972 Photographed & published by Denton H. Craley, Dearborn, MI

dp

88140-C

post card